

- b. BROKER and seller could dissolve their agency relationship. The seller may then seek to retain another broker, and/or an attorney, or may represent (her)himself. This would release the seller from any listing agreement which was entered into with BROKER. BROKER may continue to act as agent for BUYER and the BUYER remains obligated under this AGREEMENT.
- c. With fully informed consent, BUYER and seller may elect to continue with the brokerage firm serving as a consensual dual agent which is the exception to the general rule that agents serve one principal. In dual agency, the BROKER and its agents have a duty of fairness to both the BUYER and seller. As a dual agent, the firm and its agents cannot furnish undivided loyalty to either party. As a dual agent, the firm and its licensee agents have a duty not to disclose confidential information given by one principal to the other principal, such as the price one is willing to pay or accept. Such information may already be known to the firm and its agents. If the information is of such a nature that the agent cannot fairly give advice without disclosing it, the agent cannot properly continue to act as an agent.
- d. With fully informed consent, BUYER and seller may elect to continue with the brokerage firm serving as a consensual dual agent with designated sales agents. The BROKER of the firm will be a dual agent and the seller and BUYER will have different agents of the firm advocate on their behalf. The designated sales agent for the BUYER will function as the buyer's agent representing the interests of and advocating on behalf of the BUYER and the designated sales agent for the seller will function as the seller's agent representing the interests of and advocating on behalf of the seller in the negotiations between the BUYER and seller. A designated sales agent cannot provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the BUYER or seller. The designated sales agent must explain that like the dual agent under whose supervision they function, they cannot provide undivided loyalty.

For transactions where the BUYER and BROKER agree to Dual Agency or Dual Agency with Designated Sales Agent, the BUYER and BROKER agree that the BUYER will be obligated to compensate the BROKER the full amount of compensation pursuant to section 2 of this agreement as the BROKER may not request compensation from the seller or listing broker.

If BUYER and seller do not mutually agree on one of the options set forth above, the proposed transaction between BUYER and seller shall not be pursued.

5. OTHER POTENTIAL BUYERS BUYER understands that other potential buyers may consider making offers on or acquire, through BROKER, the same or similar properties as BUYER is seeking to acquire. BUYER consents to BROKER's representation of such other potential buyers before, during and after the expiration of this AGREEMENT. In the event the AGENT represents another buyer interested in the property, the AGENT must receive the consent of all buyers interested in the property before proceeding. If consent of all parties is not received, the proposed transaction between any buyer and seller shall not be pursued.
